

20-Year-Old Salt Lake Boy Rises Rapidly From Caddy to Trans-Mississippi Champ

George Von Elm Easily Beats Bromfield in the Title Match

He Achieves Championship at Thirtieth Hole, 8 Up and 6 to Go

WAS NEVER IN DOUBT

Youthful Star Outclassed His Older Rival All the Way; 4 Up in Morning Round

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 12.—George Von Elm, 20-year-old Salt Lake City caddy, completed his phenomenal rise from caddy to trans-Mississippi golf association champion this afternoon on the thirtieth green of the Denver Country club course, where he won the championship by defeating Dr. L. D. Bromfield of Denver, state champion, 8 up and 6 to go. (Bromfield is the man who eliminated James Kenney of Tulsa, Oklahoma champion, in the first round.)

Playing sensational golf, Von Elm won the morning round handily being four up at the end of 18 holes. From early in the contest the result was never in doubt, as the youthful Salt Lake star was outclassing his older rival all the time.

Von Elm took the first four holes of the afternoon round and was eight up at the end of the twenty-second hole, winning on the thirtieth.

Five years ago the new trans-Mississippi champion was a caddy on the links of the Salt Lake City Country club. His employer was W. J. Holloman, president of the club. When the youthful Von Elm began to show promise of becoming a golfer Holloman took him in charge. He sent the lad through high school and that year, 1914, Von Elm won the Utah state championship at the age of 15 years. He repeated in 1917 and in 1920. In June, 1921, Von Elm won the northwest Pacific championship at Portland, Oregon.

The title annexed by the Utah player today gives him a claim to the honor of being the premier golfer of the far west. He plans to play in the national amateur championship at St. Louis.

The champion played wonderful golf up to the twenty-eighth hole, when he had the title in his grasp. Then he gave way to a slight nervousness, missing a three-foot putt for a half that would have given him the match as he was down six. He missed another putt for a birdie three on the twenty-ninth hole and Bromfield won it with a birdie.

But he headed after losing three two holes, shooting a par five on the next for the match.

With the exception of a few missed putts, Von Elm played almost perfect golf through the 30 holes. He took six on only two holes, one a par four, and the other on a par five. He had four birdies and for the 30 holes but four strokes over par. Bromfield was 15 strokes over par.

Only one of Von Elm's drives was off the line with the pin. He altered one approach. Otherwise his game was unbeatable. He lost only three of the 12 holes of the afternoon round. Two were halved.

Von Elm had four birdies on the morning round to Bromfield's two. Von Elm took 73 strokes for the first 18 holes, one over par, while Bromfield took 79.

Bromfield made nine morning holes in par. He was over par on seven. The Utah player was trailing during the first nine, but evened the match at the ninth. It was nip and tuck the fourteenth, when Von Elm drew away from the local player. He was four up at the start of the afternoon round.

HEILMANN IN A SLUMP

But He Still Tops American League Batters by Comfortable Margin

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 12.—Slugging outfielder struck a slump in his batting, and although he continues to top the American league players who have participated in 60 or more games, he has been down from 424 to 417. Yet Coby, his manager, who is the runner up, also slumped, his mark being 387. Tobin of St. Louis, on the other hand, fared well with the willow and moved up to third position with an average of .373, with Ruth next with an average of .369, two points in front of this speaker, who dropped from third place. Speaker's mark is .367. Other leading batters: Fitzgerald, Cleveland, .358; Slater, St. Louis, .356; Williams, St. Louis, .353; Seaver, St. Louis, .348; E. Collins, Chicago, .347.

KIRKE BOOSTS LEAD

Louisville First Baseman Is Pulling Away From Rivals in the American Association

Kirke of Louisville increased his lead among the American association batters during the past week and pulled farther away from Rob Russell, the slugging Minneapolis outfielder who suffered a loss of two points. Kirke is batting .359, and has a total of 209 bases made on 293 hits which include 30 doubles, 11 triples and 15 circuit drives. Russell is hitting .353, while Ewing Brief, who has scored 112 runs for Kansas City, is in third place with 349, and is out in front in circuit drives with 23 homers to his credit. Hard of Indianapolis has been turning the paths during the last week and with his thefts of six bases, has run his string up to 49.

Riley Faces a Tough One in Muskogee Boy

Cliff Clark.

This hefty-looking youngster is Cliff Clark of Muskogee, who takes on Jimmy Riley of Tulsa in the eight-round semi-final of the Pat Walsh-Tommy Alba middleweight bout at Convention hall Tuesday night. Clark is just about the toughest proposition young Riley has yet taken on, and the semi-final is expected to prove highly interesting.

YANK DAVIS 5TH OF W. L. BATSMEN

Tulsa Star Clouting Ball for 364 Mark; Lelivelt Far in Front

Jack Lelivelt, Omaha first baseman, who is topping the Western league batters, has passed the 200 mark in hits. Jack has made 203 safeties for a total of 293 bases. His line includes 18 doubles, 8 triples and 5 homers, two of which were made in one game last Monday against Sioux City. Lelivelt's batting average is .448, while Harper of Oklahoma City is the runner-up with .418 and East of Wichita, the best run getter, who has scored 103 times, is third with .397. The average include games of last Tuesday. Harney of Omaha added three more bases to his stolen base record and is showing the way on the paths with a .373 average.

RACE TRACK AT PONCA

E. W. Marland to Build a Plant for Thoroughbreds; His Stable Serving to Lewis

PONCA CITY, Aug. 12.—E. W. Marland, local oil magnate and owner of a string of Kentucky horses, has the plans drawn for a stable, race track and bridge, all to be constructed yet this fall on land adjoining Ponca City on the northeast. In the Marland stables are 10 head of these stallions, the property of Marland and his first vice president, John S. Alcorn. All have been entered for the Wichita exposition on September 24-October 8.

Included in the Marland string are "Crown" and "King Richard" who were entered in the Colorado state horse show at Colorado Springs last summer, and took first and second prizes respectively. The entire 10 head were purchased in Kentucky. Outside of the John Lewis stables at Tulsa, the Marland stables are said to be the finest in the state.

Austria's first hydroelectric plant has been started in the Danube to supply Vienna with 70,000 to 170,000 horsepower, depending on the water level.

BLACK SOX PLAY IN OILTON SPT. 4

Will Meet Ponca Oilers at Oil Field Town, According to Plans

Special to The World. PONCA CITY, Aug. 12.—The renowned Sox members of the Chicago American league team who were captured by a Chicago jury recently on charges of throwing world series ball games, are to play at Oilton on September 4 against the Ponca City "Oilers" in outdoor uniforms and at Oilton on Labor day September 5 against the same team, according to the understanding of Howard Dodge, manager of the local club, all members of which are employees of the Marland Petroleum company, including numerous former league players.

It is reported that Oilton voted the Sox defendants, while they were in jail, that if they were released they would give them 100 games. This, it is understood here, has been done, and the games arranged with Oilton. The Ponca City team is playing for the title of the "Black Sox" and has lost but one game playing for the former capital city, that being in a game, a 2 to 1 at Oilton, last Sunday.

Following the game at Oilton with the former Sox on September 4, the team will play at Oilton for the following day, and then at Ponca City on September 6. The Sox are expected to play a game with the former champions at Ponca City.

The local players have been playing Sunday ball at Oilton for five weeks past, having taken there the first time to play against the Cross country team, Tuesday night, and there again on August 21, and will play at Oilton on Saturday Sunday, August 24.

TWOBLY GAINS ON CARDS'S STAR

Chicagoan Pulling Up on Hornsby, But the Gap Is Still a Big One

Clarence Twombly, who has been alternating between playing the outfield for the Cubs and acting as pitcher in the National league, is closing the gap between himself and Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star, for batting honors in the National league, according to averages released today and which include games of last Wednesday. The Chicagoan is tied on 5 runs, 10 hits and 10 triples with an average of .255. The St. Louis keystone guardian dropped 5 points last week to top a list with an average of .410. Pop Young of New York is third with .360.

George Kelly of the Giants cracked out his circuit breaker during the past week and is leading the circuit drive hitters, his closest rivals being Hornsby and McHenry of St. Louis, each of whom have 15 runs, 10 hits and 10 triples. Three bases since the compilation of the previous figures and is showing the way to the lead with 24 hits.

Hornsby broke the tie which he shared with Smith for runs scored and is leading in this department. He has scored 87 times and has a total base record of 267, which includes 25 doubles, 13 triples and 15 homers.

Other leading batters: Fitzhugh, Pittsburgh, .351; McHenry, St. Louis, .346; Nicholson, Boston, .346; Cruise, Boston, .342; Roush, Cincinnati, .339; Roush, St. Louis, .338; McHenry, New York, .335; Mann, St. Louis, .335; Schmidt, Brooklyn, .335.

ILLINI YOSE BRIGHT STAR

Carney, All-American End, Out With an Injured Knee

URBANA, Ill., Aug. 12.—Coach Robert Zippke of the University of Illinois football team, is in a quandary. Carney, all-American end, who injured his knee in the Ohio State battle last year, may not be able to play again.

Illinoisans, who have been admiring Carney's prowess, are disappointed to say that even with an operation he will not be in shape for football, and that his chances to compete in basketball are slim. Carney is next year's basketball center.

Dick Reiche, former end on the Great Lakes naval training station team, is being groomed for the job to pair with Helstrom, who played the other wing last season.
